Proposal for downsizing the I and B Ministry

72. SHRI RAJNATH SINGH 'SURYA': Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is a proposal for downsizing his Ministry;

(b) if so, what are the main proposals;

(c) whether it would lead to reorganization in the Ministry; and

(d) if so, details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI ARUN JAITELY): (a) to (d) Ministry of Information and Broadcasting has not taken any decision on downsizing the staff in the Ministry or in media units. The Fifth Pay Commission had recommended reduction in the overall size of the bureaucracy. The Ministry of Finance has appointed an Expenditure Reforms Commission in February, 2000 in pursuance of the Budget speech of the Finance Minister wherein he had observed that high rate of growth of non-developmental expenditure by Government is a growing and critical source of concern. The Finance Minister had further observed that the most effective and lasting solution to this problem is to begin the process of downsizing the Government. The Expenditure Reforms Commission has not yet submitted its report in regard to the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting.
